

Sydney Metro is Australia's biggest public transport project.

New metro rail will become the fastest, easiest and most reliable journey between the Sydney and Parramatta CBDs. Sydney Metro West will service the key precincts of Greater Parramatta, Sydney Olympic Park, The Bays and the Sydney CBD.

Metro services started in 2019 in the city's North West with a train every four minutes in the peak. Metro rail will be extended into the CBD and beyond to Bankstown in 2024. Sydney Metro includes new underground CBD stations at Barangaroo, Martin Place and Pitt Street with new metro platforms under Central.

In 2024, Sydney Metro will have 31 stations on a new 66km standalone metro rail system – the biggest urban rail project in Australian history with ultimate capacity for a metro train every two minutes in each direction under the Sydney city centre.

Geotechnical investigations: The Bays

Geotechnical investigations will be undertaken in the White Bay area comprising the Port Access Road, Solomons Way and Sommerville Road. This work is necessary to inform early design work for Sydney Metro West.

Work is expected to take place between Wednesday 4 March and Wednesday 18 March 2020 (weather and site conditions permitting).

Work will include:

- Using a truck mounted drill rig to bore below ground level
- Removing spoil from site using a vacuum excavation truck
- Reinstating the area at completion of the work.

What to expect:

- The work will generate some noise but impact is expected to be minimal
- Traffic control and directional signage may be used for the safety of workers and the community
- Access to pathways and buildings will be maintained at all times for vehicles and pedestrians.

This work will be completed during standard construction hours from Monday to Saturday and out of normal working hours on Sunday. Sunday work is required to ensure minimal disruption and safe access.

Work hours:

- Monday to Friday 7am to 6pm
- Saturday 8am to 1pm
- Sunday 8am to 6pm.
