

Project Update – Central Station

15 November 2023

Sydney Metro is Australia's biggest public transport project.

Services started in May 2019 in the city's North West with a train every four minutes in the peak. Metro rail will be extended into the CBD and beyond to Bankstown, with new CBD metro railway stations at Martin Place, Gadigal and Barangaroo and new metro platforms at Central. By 2030, Sydney will have a network of four metro lines, 46 stations, and 113km of new metro rail.

Laing O'Rourke is delivering the new Sydney Metro platforms under Central Station as well as the landmark Central Walk - a new underground pedestrian concourse to help customers get around Sydney's busiest railway station.

Final works to Chalmers Street bike path – RESCHEDULED WORK DATES

Out of hours work will be undertaken at night from 4pm to 10pm Wednesday 22 November and 6pm Thursday 23 November to 6am Friday 24 November 2023 for the final activities to reinstate the bike path on Chalmers Street.

The work will involve cleaning the asphalt on the bike path, painting and line-marking the path.

Cleaning the bike path will take place on the Wednesday 22 November shift and painting and line-marking will take place on the Thursday 23 November shift.

Equipment used for the work will include a vacuum truck, construction vehicles, a gas burner, hand tools and power tools.

During the overall work period from 4pm Wednesday 22 November to 6am Friday 24 November 2023, cyclists will need to dismount and walk along the Chalmers Street footpath. Please follow the direction of signage and traffic controllers during the works.

All access to residential buildings and shops in the area will be maintained.

Chalmers Street entrance and Randle Lane update

The new entrance to Central Station on Chalmers Street opened on Monday 13 November 2023, providing direct access to Central Station for customers from the Surry Hills area and a direct interchange for passengers from the CBD and South East Light Rail onto train services.

Work on Randle Lane is nearing completion, with the installation of a new kerb and asphaltting the road underway.
